Fees Explained

Tuition:

Tuition is a flat-rate monthly fee, regardless of how many classes are in a month, or how many classes a student attends in that month. The monthly rates are calculated on an annual basis and take into consideration all holiday breaks and closures. Tuition covers class instruction, dress rehearsals, performance weekends and additional rehearsals as needed. We do not pro-rate for closures due to holidays, rehearsals or performances, or due to student absence. Our class schedule can not accommodate make-ups for student absences. Please see the Welcome Packet for more information.

Costume Fee:

The costume fee is a flat rate which covers the costume, accessories, tax and shipping and studio labor (which may include unpacking, organizing, labeling, distributing and alterations). Tights may be provided with some costumes. All costume balances must be paid in full by the Costume Fee Due Date (please see studio calendar), but we accept payments any time and in any increments leading up to the due date. Please speak with the front desk staff if you would like to set up a payment plan for costume fees.
